Legal Notices

THE STATE OF TEXAS, To the Sheriff or Any Constable of El Paso County, Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon Raymond S. Taylor, by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the 44th District Court of El Paso County, to be held at the Court House thereof, in the City of El Paso, Texas, the first Monday in May, 1913, the same being the 6th day of May, 1913, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 16th day of January, 1913, in a suit numbered on the Docket of said Court No. 8865, wherein Jennie Weems Taylor is Plaintiff, and Raymond S. Taylor is Defendant, and said petition alleging that on or about December 15th, 1904, in New Orleans, La., Plaintiff was lawfully married to Defendant and that they continued to live together as husband and wife until about May 8, 1912, when by reason of cruel and harsh treatment and improper conduct of Defendant towards Plaintiff she was compelled to permanently abandon him, since which time she has remained single and Plaintiff alleges that Defendant lived in open and notorious adultery with another woman named Alice Wilson, in Kansas City, Mo., Omaha, Neb., and other places unknown to your petitioner, and that Defendant has contributed absolutely nothing towards her support and that she has been compelled to earn her own livelihood and that Defendant's actions and conduct towards her generally are of such a nature as to render their living together as husband and wife insupportable. Plaintiff prays for judgment dissolving the marriage relations, for costs of suit, etc., etc.

Herein Plaintiff doth have you before and Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Witness, J. A. Escalada, Clerk of the 44th District Court of El Paso County, Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at the City of El Paso, Texas, this 7th day of April, 1913.

J. A. Escalada, Clerk.
